The ketubah, the Jewish marriage contract, is a legal document signed before the wedding ceremony which outlines a husband's responsibilities to his wife. It is preferable to consult with a Rabbi to ascertain the appropriate information needed to fill in the ketubah. A traditional Orthodox text is used for all the Ketubot shown. Our eight large ketubot are $175 each; Floral Blessings and Jerusalem Panorama are $36 each. To personalize the ketubah in matching calligraphy, add $75 for Hebrew only; $100 for Hebrew/English text. An initial monogram can be incorporated (where possible) in Hebrew or English for an additional $35.

Ketubot printed on klaf, with artistic hand enhancements and custom scalloping are $1200. Includes leather case and personalization.
