2016
EDITION CATALOGUE

In Fightlab's latest and greatest catalogue for 2016, you will find a full and comprehensive range of martial arts training gear tailored for both professional fighters and enthusiasts alike. We have got every aspect of training covered, from boxing gloves and punch bags all the way through to fight fashion with our cool and trendy T-shirts and hoodies.

When you buy Fightlab, you're not just buying a name, but also a guarantee. That's because we're passionate about what we do and only use the highest-quality materials available for all our products. It's what we've built our reputation on.

Here at Fightlab, we are constantly developing new and exciting designs/products, and adding to our range of fight gear all the time. With three stores located across Phuket – the unofficial "Fight and Fitness Hub of the World" – our accessibility to and interaction with the fighters on the ground allows us to rapidly respond to emerging trends and shape our product lines using first-hand feedback from the fight community.

Mongkol

- Mongkol is a Thai word used for describing something which brings good blessings or prosperity. In Muay Thai, Mongkol refers to a circlet or headpiece that Thai boxers wear before a fight. They believe the Mongkol will keep them safe and offer protection. In the past, a Mongkol was used as a formal part of the Thai boxers' outfit and was worn throughout the fight. However, today a Mongkol is only worn before the fight and during the Wai Kru Ram Muay ritual dance and taken off once the fight begins. The wearing of a Mongkol is a homage to when soldiers wore them into battle in ancient times.
- Made of a cotton/poly mix and is adjustable to fit adult heads.
- Available in single and multi-colors.

Grind Headphone

The bigger the dream
the harder the grind

You're serious about your fitness and that means you need a good pair of workout headphones. Fightlab's Grind headphones will let you keep the beats flowing during your next training session and have been designed specifically to complement your fitness activities.

- SUPER BASS
- DETACHABLE CABLE
- FOLDING DESIGN

Fightlab 'Grind' Headphones

BLUETOOTH CONNECTIVITY

Never worry about cables tangling or being pulled out while you're smashing it in the gym. Grind's Bluetooth connectivity allows you to concentrate on your workout and nothing else.

MP3 PLAYER

With a built-in MP3 player, Grind does away with the need to carry a separate device. Less bulk means you are more agile and can get the very most out of your session.

FM RADIO

Not sure what to listen to? Grind's FM radio allows you to tune in to your favourite shows and not have to worry about organising playlists.

FOLDING DESIGN

Grind's folding design allows them to fit neatly inside your gym bag, without taking up too much space. It also reduces the risk of damage, meaning you won't be buying new headphones every week.
