1) History of Science Collection. Over 3000+ offprints in Molecular Biology, Genetics, Cytology, Eugenics, Botany, Zoology from 1880s to 2000

Cataloged from the History of Science collection acquired in 2013 from William B. Provine. Included are hundreds of signed, stamped items from the collections of: Theodor Boveri, Correns, Edmund Wilson, and many other early Geneticists. Such important papers such as: Über die Natur der

Genmutation und der Genstruktur by N. W. Timofeeff-Ressovsky, K. G. Zimmer u. Max Delbruck
Inscribed to L.C. Dunn by Ressovsky; The PaJaMo paper: The Genetic Control and Cytoplasmic Expression of ?Inducibility? in the Synthesis of β -galactosidase by E. coli as well as original publication of the paper:

Sur l'expression et le role des alleles inductible et constitutif dans la synthese de la beta-galactosidase chez des zygotes d'Escherichia coli by Arthur Pardee, Francois Jacob, and Jaques Monod; many more highlights included. Arguably the most extensive, important collection currently available. A complete spreadsheet is available to those interested. This is a huge collection. Some items contain a single offprint, and others have as many as 100+ offprints. Included are runs of important periodicals counted as 1 item which may contain 30-100 individual issues.
