A SUMMER FLING

Often the best friends are made while traveling. That's what happened when Josh Madans, founder of Dallas-based men's accessories brand Billy Baker Co., made the acquaintance of Saint Luke, a London line of punchy travel gear for those in-the-know. Upon spotting Saint Luke canvas bags in the boutique at the One&Only Palmilla in Los Cabos, Madans reached out. The perfect summer collaboration was born in the form of two bracelet and bag combinations. The Tortola, a classic navy duffel that fits in everywhere, from Montauk to the bag's namesake, and the St. Barths, a head-turning canvas bag in bright green and orange. In turn, Madan's hand-beaded bracelets complement the bags for any summer travel wardrobe. saintluke.co Lisa Collins Shaddock
