

History

Never thought it would end up this way
never thought it'd be true
I've always known that love is gambling
I just never thought that I could lose on you

How do I move
now that you've moved on?
How do I fight
now that you're long gone?
How do I dream
now that you don't believe?
say goodbye,
we're History.

All the reasons I had faith in you
All the meaning behind every season that I spend with you I never thought you would cross the line

How do you feel
when you walk him to the door?
How do you look in the mirror anymore?
How do you toss
the idea of you and me?
say goodbye,
we're History.
