

Show Me

Pin me up, up against the wall make me feel like I'm ten feet tall
I don't know if I can ever give up this fallacy that I'll never be enough I'm not sure if I can let you in, what if you see all the devils and sins inside

So hold me, hold me
I'm about to implode
I've got nickel on lips and she's ready to blow
It's ok if you do not know how to stop yourself yet

Show me that I'm loved
Show me I'm enough
Show that it's not my obligation to fill you up

Hold me back, I'm a bit too deep chemicals in my blood - too sweet
I ain't sure if I can ever put 'em down
The Devil told me that I'm never gonna drown Always whispering in my ear secret lies that disseminate fear inside

So hold me, hold me
I'm about to implode
I've got nickel on lips and she's ready to blow
It's ok if you do not know how to love yourself yet

Show me that I'm loved
Show me I'm enough
Show that it's not my obligation to fill you up
Show me I'm alive
Show me I can try
Show me there's no reason for me to fear looking you in the eye.
