

Spring | Summer 2024

Established in 2001, we are one of the leading wall art manufacturers.

All products Designed and Hand Made in the UK

Through exclusive collaborations with renowned artists, we have designed and produced a striking collection of contemporary wall art. Handmade in the UK in the state-of-the-art Headquarters, a dedicated, experienced production team ensure each product is meticulously put together, taking the utmost care and attention. From the initial piece of art to the finished quality product, we strive to maintain our reputation of providing gallery presented products at an affordable cost. Our collections embrace our unique hand embellished detail, exclusive mouldings and colours. Our goal remains to grow in a sustainable way that means we can ensure both quality of product and service and continue designing and creating.

Thank you for your continued support and best wishes for 2024.

Tim Pellowe and the Team.

Eco Friendly

We care passionately about the environment – using natural and recycled materials through sustainable channels to manufacture our products where possible.

Ethical Trading

We have an aspiration and a commitment to trade ethically throughout our business. From the initiation of product through to the disposal of our packaging material, in a way that enhances the environment for our suppliers and our customers.

Services

Our extensive full range is available at www.artko.co.uk and we invite you to visit our showroom where we showcase our stunning ranges. PAUL HILLARY

New Exclusive Artist

Renowned British artist Paul Hillary navigates the realms of abstract and semi-abstract expression, driven by influences from the atmospheric nuances of nature and textures embedded in both urban and countryside environments. Working predominantly with oil and acrylic, Paul is an unceasing explorer of techniques, colourways, and textures in his artistic journey. His creations eloquently encapsulate abstract visions, portraying the allure of weathered skips, intricate textures found in nature, and the captivating essence of abstract forms, consistently offering viewers a visually rich and immersive experience.

JANE SKINGLEY

Exclusive Artist

Jane Skingley, acclaimed for serene landscapes, flowers, and bird paintings, skilfully captures fleeting moments, deriving inspiration from familiar surroundings and daily walks. Her art, designed to evoke a calming ambiance, encapsulates the essence of each place, a shoreline's sweep or a field's curve. Skingley's still life pieces elevate everyday memories, like wild flowers in a jam jar or birds at her table. Exhibited globally, including prestigious venues like the Royal College of Art and Glyndebourne opera house, she undertook a significant WWF climate change commission exhibited at the Houses of Parliament. In 2023, she received the Artist's Open Studios prize for Berkshire.

DUNCAN PALMAR RSMA

Exclusive Artist

Duncan Palmar, born in 1964, passionately embraced painting at nineteen, holding his first solo exhibition within the year.

Inspired by South West England, he crafts evocative paintings capturing changing seasons, light, and the sea's dynamic movement. A member of the Royal Society of Marine Artists, Duncan meticulously portrays landscapes in oils, emphasizing small details. Professionally painting since 1984, he undertook diverse commissions, including work for the Armed Forces and commemorative millennium projects. Residing in Surrey, Duncan, with his wife, two children, and three dogs, aspires to relocate to the West Country, where his artistic journey continues to unfold.

KERRY SHEARER

New Exclusive Artist

Kerry Shearer, a British painter based in Lincolnshire, draws inspiration from the breathtaking landscapes of the UK. Embracing the tradition of British Naïve style, her work, seemingly simplistic at first glance, unfolds as a complex process of layering and filtering. Rejecting conventional norms, Kerry's rebellious spirit shapes her unique artistic voice. Despite the sophistication in her painting process, her idealized images evoke a whimsical and quirky charm, connecting with the 'Inner Child' and making her art accessible to all.
