

Sunday Age
Sunday 1/09/2019
 Page: 8
 Section: Inside Out
 Region: Melbourne, AU
 Circulation: 98214
 Type: Capital City Daily
 Size: 1,010.00 sq.cms.

slice
 CUT STRAIGHT TO YOUR NEWS

press clip

SAVVY SHOPPER

« FROM LITTLE THINGS

The team behind The Little Veggie Patch Co believe that everyone can grow their own food whether it be a pot of herbs on the windowsill or a dedicated kitchen garden. On the website, in addition to garden tools and veggie crates, is a large range of heirloom seeds to get started. Oregano Seeds, $5, The Little Veggie Patch Co, littleveggiepatchco.com.au

» SPRING CLEAN «

A spring cleaning spree with Koala Eco products not only ensures a non-toxic result, it also has the added benefit of a beautifully fragranced home. The natural cleaning products are made from plant derived ingredients and pure essential oils, with no compromise to efficiency. Glass Cleaner, $12, Koala Eco, koala.eco

» I CAN SEE CLEARLY NOW

After 15 years in the industry Bec Bennett decided to approach eyewear design in a more environmentally responsible way. In 2013, she launched Sticks & Sparrow with a range of stylish frames made from sustainable materials. The sunglasses pictured feature bamboo arms and real pressed flowers in the frames. Harvest Dandelion Sunglasses, $220, Sticks & Sparrow, sticksandsparrow.com.au

» BLOOMIN' BEAUTY «

The Palace vase from Linen House is worthy of the finest spring blooms. The generously sized ruby hued vase, featuring ribbed textured glass, has a wide neck perfect for foraged foliage and bountiful bouquets. Palace Vase, $40, Linen House, linenhouse.com

» VELVET CRUSH

Dutch brand HK Living makes contemporary furniture inspired by the past, often with an eclectic twist. Case in point, the Retro three-seater sofa with the vintage appeal of crushed velvet upholstery. Available in blue, cream and mustard, the sofa would make a stylish statement in any space. Retro 3 Seater Sofa, $4495, houseoforange.com.au

Georgie Gordon

LIVING ART

This limited edition print of an original work by Adele Naidoo is from Greenhouse Interiors' new spring summer collection. The large canvas print features strong saturated colours contrasted with pastel hues, a signature of Naidoo's nature-inspired work. Lush Limited Edition Print 160 x 120cm, $810, Adele Naidoo, greenhouseinteriors.com.au

» FLORAL NIGHTS

Sheridan's limited edition spring collection was designed in collaboration with celebrated florist Saskia Havekes, of Grandiflora. Inspired by her favourite flower the magnolia, Havekes worked with the iconic brand to produce two quilt covers, a cushion, two artworks and this pair of pillowcases featuring a digital floral print. Vanishing Grandiflora Pillowcases, $99, sheridan.com.au

» CHILL OUT

This impressive fridge is part of a collaboration between Smeg and South African photographer Filipa Domingues which saw the retro FAB28 fridges wrapped in striking images of rare plants. With only four available in South Africa, as part of a fundraising campaign for Domingues' first solo exhibition, it's one for the wishlist only.