

INSIDE

The hottest trends in bathrooms and laundries right now

Got a wet room reno coming up? Peep these stylish spaces before you start.

MAY 11, 2022 7:45PM

The 'wet areas' of our homes (namely the bathroom and laundry) are some of the hardest working outside of the kitchen. From the tiles you choose to the amount of cabinetry and storage you include, there are a lot of elements that need to work in harmony to create a functioning space that matches up to our needs.

Once the design is down pat, the fun can begin. Homewares, art, hardware, clothing and even beauty products provide the finishing touches on these vital rooms, inviting an opportunity for your personal style to really shine.

From bright tones to minimal serenity, these are the 8 hottest laundry and bathroom trends that you can expect to see in 2022 and 2023.

Koala Eco natural laundry wash, $28.95, Nourished Life

Making the move to sustainable and non-toxic products is something we should all be doing, and Koala have been championing this movement for years. Combining two of nature's best antibacterials, this biodegradable formula is equally as powerful as its chemical counterparts and is safe for sensitive skin. SHOP NOW
