

MEDIA ADVISORY

"Experiences Canada 150&Me" welcomes Hailey and Bree Hollinsworth, sisters and co-founders of Ungalli Clothing Company, to speak about consciousness for the environmental and sustainable future and be "Human Books" at the mini "Human Library" at Montreal Youth Forum "Canada's Place in the World", April 11 and April 12, 2017, Montreal, PQ.

"Experiences Canada 150&Me" is a "once in-a-lifetime" national youth contest, travel exchange and series of regional youth forums to celebrate Canada's 150th birthday in 2017. Youth between the ages of 14-19 are being invited to share their ideas and lead a national conversation about "what is the greatest challenge or opportunity facing Canada for their generation?"

Thunder Bay's Hailey and Bree Hollinsworth have been invited to speak in front of emerging leaders about consciousness for the environmental and sustainable future. The next day, Hailey and Bree will be "Human Books" in the mini "Human Library" with participants. The Canadian sisters are committed to sharing their story and helping to inspire youth to fight for what matters most to them.
