 GRAN RUPESTRE ✦ 2016

Cava de guarda superior gran reserva Extra Brut

Our great cava, complex, long-lived, experienced... Much more than a Gran Reserva. We cut his throat after 42 months but, if he admits it, we keep him much longer. Up to 60 months. They say that rock art is one of the manifestations that have endured the longest years without spoiling. This cava is a Great Rupestrian. And this is partly due to the quality of the grapes and partly to the protection provided by the underground cellar, where the bottles age in silence, in the shade and sheltered from the outside like those wonderful prehistoric paintings. A magical, elegant and very gastronomic cava.

TASTING NOTE

Straw yellow in color and with fine bubbles. Very expressive on the nose, with notes of ripe white fruit, melon and herbaceous hints of fennel on a very fine pastry background. On the palate, it is fresh and notes of nuts and hazelnuts appear. Of extreme finesse.

Aromas

Varieties: Xarel·lo, Macabeo and Parellada

Aging: From 42 to 60 months - Gran Reserva-

Production: 3,000 bottles a year.
