01 GUIDING PRINCIPLES

GUIDING PRINCIPLES

WHY KAMEDIS HAS A CODE?

If you think of integrity as a destination, our company's Code of Ethics and Business Conduct is the map we use to get there.

It provides information to help us work fairly and honestly wherever we conduct business in the world, and it outlines the steps we need to take for making ethical decisions along the way.

Kamedis' Code helps us to reduce uncertainties with regards to behavior and to stay on the right track, pointing us in the right direction when we're not sure of what to do. It also represents our shared commitment to the highest standards of integrity. By working for Kamedis, you are agreeing to follow its Code. The Code of Ethics applies to Kamedis and all its affiliated companies.

WHAT'S YOUR RESPONSIBILITY?

As a valued member of the Kamedis team, we rely on you to:

- Read the Code, be familiar with it and make sure you comply with it
- Check the Code when you're not sure of what to do
- Do the right thing
- Be alert to activities going on around you. Report any violations, or suspected violations, of the Code.

We want you to feel comfortable coming forward, without any apprehension. That's why we strictly prohibit any reprisals or intimidation of employees who speak up and report any violation, or suspected violation, of the Code, Kamedis will address and investigate all claims of retaliation.

Involved in a situation that just doesn't feel right?

Discuss it with your HR representative and or your direct manager.

YOU ARE IN CHARGE OF YOUR DECISIONS AND ACTIONS

Always act legally and ethically even if someone tells you to do otherwise.

Remember, no one has the authority to violate or instruct you to violate the law or the Kamedis Code of Ethics and Business Conduct.

If you suspect illegal or unethical activities, share your concerns. By speaking up, you are helping us uphold an honest and ethical Kamedis.

Kamedis' Code complements the company's policies, procedures and employment agreements. If you encounter an inconsistency or conflict, discuss it with your HR representative or your direct manager to determine the proper course of action. It's important to know and follow the Code at all times. Anyone who violates the Code may be subject to disciplinary action, which may include termination of employment and in some, cases legal action.

WHAT IF A LOCAL LAW WHERE I WORK CONFLICTS WITH THE CODE?

As a company operating in a global marketplace, we engage with a wide range of social customs, rules and regulations, cultures and laws. We have an obligation to comply with all applicable laws wherever we operate. If a local law conflicts with the Code, you should follow the law, but please advise the HR representative of the conflict.

If you find, however, that a local business practice conflicts with the Code, you should follow the Code. Not sure? Ask for help.

MAKE GOOD CHOICES

Kamedis counts on you to use good judgment in your decision making.

But, if you are ever faced with a complex ethical situation, ask yourself the following:

- Is it legal? YES
- Is it in line with Kamedis Code and other company policies? YES
- Would you feel comfortable if everyone knew you did it? YES
- Would it be viewed positively by your co-workers, your company and companies Kamedis does business with? YES
- You can go ahead and do it.

If you are in doubt as to any of the above or if you feel uncomfortable about a situation, discuss it with your direct manager or your HR representative.

Kamedis is proud of the cultural diversity of our company.

POLITICAL ACTIVITY

Kamedis respects the right of employees to engage in political activity to support political groups, government officials or candidates. Any such activity must be voluntary and performed in the employee's own time, at the employee's own expense. RELATIONSHIPS WITH CO-WORKERS

Kamedis acknowledges that employees can develop social and personal relationships in the workplace provided that these relationships do not interfere with the work performance or with the effective functioning of the workplace.

Employees who engage in personal relationships (including romantic and sexual) should be aware of their professional responsibilities and are responsible for ensuring that the relationship does not raise concerns about abuse of power, harassment, favouritism, bias, or conflict of interest.

If a consensual personal relationship does exist in a supervisory context, the employee who is in the position of greater influence or authority must disclose the relationship to HR representative and initiate arrangements to address any issues of conflict of interest.

Employees who have or are involved in a personal relationship must ensure that:

1. The employee in the position of greater authority should remove themselves from influence, input, or decision-making power over the other employee;
2. Employees shall not participate in personnel decisions when their objectivity could be compromised to any reasonable extent.

Employees must avoid any situation where there could be a perceived conflict of interest.

HARASSMENT FREE

As employees, we value and respect each other.

We do not harass others based on their race, color, religion, gender, sexual orientation, age, national origin, disability or veteran status or other status that is protected by law, or at all.

Harassment is when words or actions are used in a way that interferes with someone's work or creates a work environment that is intimidating, hostile or offensive. Harassment can take many forms including words, derogatory statements, signs, offensive jokes, cartoons, pictures, posters, e-mails, pranks, intimidation, physical contact or assault.

- Sexual harassment

Any form of sexual harassment, including unwelcome sexual advances of either a physical or verbal nature, is strictly prohibited. The policy also provides information on how to file a sexual harassment complaint.

Be sure you know, understand and follow Kamedis' prevention of sexual harassment policy. Kamedis will discipline any employee who is found to be guilty of harassment. This may include dismissal.

- Report misconduct towards yourself and others

You are a valued member of Kamedis, and you have a right to work without fear or intimidating, hostile or offensive behaviour from anyone, including your manager. If this situation arises contact your HR representative.
