

WAREHOUSE SUPERVISOR

The London Honey Company is one of the UK's leading purveyors of fine honey. Since its beginnings in 1999 The London Honey Company has become beekeeper to London's most iconic rooftops, supplies London's best restaurants, creates honey ranges for the top UK food halls and sells its own range of honey through department stores, delis and specialist food shops across the country and on the continent. Due to the continued success and growth of the company we now need a warehouse supervisor. This is a permanent position following a 3 month trial period.

The Person

The warehouse supervisor is a hard working, hands-on do-er with experience in food production. As the warehouse supervisor, your passion for real food with its own story ensures our honey leaves the warehouse on time and looking beautiful. There are always opportunities for continuous improvement and you have the initiative to use them. The successful candidate must communicate effectively with other members of the team, motivating them and bringing out the best in them, often under pressure. As the warehouse supervisor you will work closely with the office team and business owner to schedule the packing and despatch of multiple orders with competing priorities.

Key responsibilities

- Overseeing the warehouse floor: receiving of honey into the warehouse, stock management and storage.
- Overseeing honey extraction and packing room operations, labelling, picking of orders and timely order despatch.
- The adherence to high health and safety standards throughout the warehouse floor.
- Maintaining of records associated with honey packing and food hygiene.
- Prioritising multiple orders through effective production planning both long and short term.
- To lead the design and implementation of new systems and procedures in the warehouse as the company grows.

Experience and capabilities

- Health and safety standards, familiarity with SALSA a bonus
- Working under pressure
- Delivering projects on time and to tight deadlines
- Results focused and action orientated
- Numerate
- PC literate
- Several years experience in a food business
- Preferably a full driving licence
- Personal alcohol licence is a bonus

Salary:

- Competitive. Dependent on experience. The working hours are usually 9am till 6pm Monday to Friday, however flexibility is required at times to meet the needs of the business.

If you are interested in the role please send your CV to Emily@thelondonhoneycompany.co.uk along with a few words about yourself and why you are interested in joining the London Honey Company team.

