

Essentials of the English Language, Fifth Edition (ES500) – Curriculum

Page	Error / Clarification	Correction	Corrected in
31, 203	Week 17: Charts L M N	Charts J M N	REV 6/2021*
31, 241	Week 20: Review J and O	Review L and O	REV 6/2021
31	Week 23: Chart EE	Chart DD	REV 6/2021
47	Chart AA typo in Simple Form, Present: “action of state of being...”	“...action or state of being...”	REV 6/2021
47	[clarification]	Add “of being” to “state” in the definition of Simple Future, all three Perfect forms, all three Progressive forms, and all three Perfect Progressive forms.	REV 6/2021
47	[clarification]	Change Present Progressive definition to say “in progress” to match the heading.	REV 6/2021
58, 60	Chart E lists Latin case for NDA as nominative.	The correct Latin case is vocative .	REV 6/2021
59, 60, 309	[clarification]	Chart E, Glossary: Clarified definition of concrete noun to “ something that can be experienced with the five senses .”	REV 6/2021
60	Specific Proper: “Names a specific person , place, thing, activity, or idea...”	Removed the bold font from “ person .”	REV 6/2021
68, 69, 71	Chart F includes “oneself” for third person singular reflexive pronouns.	Remove “oneself.” Although oneself is third person singular reflexive, it is common, not neuter, and does not match Foundations.	REV 6/2021
100	[clarification]	Chart I: Remove “(degree)” from “flexional” since it is not part of copywork.	REV 6/2021
163	Chart M: “A complex sentence consists of at least one independent clause and at least one subordinate clause ( www asia wub ).”	“A complex sentence consists of one independent clause and at least one subordinate clause.”  (The acronym does not represent all subordinate clauses.)	REV 6/2021
254	[clarification] Chart Q: definition of verbal does not match glossary.	“A verbal is a form of a verb that performs the function of an adjective, noun, or adverb.”	REV 6/2021
254	Chart Q: “an infinitive used as a noun, adjective, or adverb.”	“An infinitive is ‘to’ plus a verb , used as a noun, adjective, or adverb.”	REV 6/2021
254	Chart Q: “a present or past participle used as an adjective.”	“A participle is a verb form used as an adjective and most often ends in -ed, -en, or -ing .”	REV 6/2021
254	Chart Q: “a present participle used as a noun.”	“A gerund is a present participle verb form used as a noun.”	REV 6/2021

Essentials Fifth Edition (ES500) – Solutions Manual

Page	Error/Clarification	Correction	Corrected in
10	Chart E lists Latin case for NDA as nominative.	The correct Latin case is vocative .	REV 6/2021*
10	Chart E: Specific Proper: “Names a specific person , place, thing, activity, or idea...”	Removed the bold font from “ person .”	REV 6/2021
10	[clarification]	Chart E, Glossary: Clarified definition of concrete noun to “Names something that can be experienced with the five senses .”	REV 6/2021
11	Chart F lists “itself / oneself” for third person singular reflexive neuter.	Remove “oneself.” Although oneself is third person singular reflexive, it is common, not neuter.	REV 6/2021
14	[clarification]	Chart I: Remove “(degree)” from “flexional” since it is not part of copywork.	REV 6/2021
18	Chart M: “A complex sentence consists of at least one independent clause and at least one subordinate clause ( www.asia.wub ).”	“A complex sentence consists of one independent clause and at least one subordinate clause.”	REV 6/2021
22	[clarification] Chart Q: definition of verbal does not match glossary.	“A verbal is a form of a verb that performs the function of an adjective, noun, or adverb .”	REV 6/2021
22	Chart Q: “an infinitive used as a noun, adjective, or adverb.”	“An infinitive is ‘to’ plus a verb , used as a noun, adjective, or adverb.”	REV 6/2021
22	Chart Q: “a present or past participle used as an adjective.”	“A participle is a verb form used as an adjective and most often ends in -ed, -en, or -ing .”	REV 6/2021
22	Chart Q: “a present participle used as a noun.”	“A gerund is a present participle verb form used as a noun.”	REV 6/2021
23	Chart AA typo in Simple Form, Present: “action of state of being...”	“...action or state of being...”	REV 6/2021
23	[clarification]	Add “of being” to “state” in the definition of Simple Future, all three Perfect forms, all three Progressive forms, and all three Perfect Progressive forms.	REV 6/2021
23	[clarification]	Change Present Progressive definition to say “in progress” to match the heading.	REV 6/2021

*Second Printing

Essentials Fifth Edition (ES500) – Student Packet

Page	Error / Clarification	Correction	Corrected in
17	Chart M: “A complex sentence consists of at least one independent clause and at least one subordinate clause ( www asia wub ).”	“A complex sentence consists of one independent clause and at least one subordinate clause.”  (The acronym does not represent all subordinate clauses.)	REV 6/2021*
21	Chart Q	Provided more space to write the definition of a verbal.	REV 6/2021

*Second Printing