

Trivium Tables®: Essentials—Sentences (ES056)

| Page | Error | Correction | Corrected in |
|----------------|---|---|--------------|
| Chart G | The definition of compound sentence is incorrect. | A compound sentence consists of at least two independent clauses joined by a coordinating conjunction (a semicolon may be used in some cases). | REV 05/2021 |
| Chart M | The definition of complex sentence is incorrect. | A complex sentence is a sentence that consists of at least one independent clause and at least one subordinate clause. | REV 05/2021 |
| Spelling Rules | Rule 1: “crocodile” does not demonstrate this rule. | Replaced “crocodile” with “ cob ” to match the curriculum. | REV 06/2021 |
| | Rule 8: “hedgehog” does not demonstrate this rule. | Removed image and replaced “hedgehog” with “ badge ” to match the curriculum. | REV 06/2021 |
| | Rule 10: “weasel” is an exception to this rule. | Replaced “weasel” with “ is. ” | REV 06/2021 |
| | Rule 11: “ostrich” is an exception to this rule. | Removed image and replaced “ostrich” with “ roach. ” | REV 06/2021 |
| | Rule 12: no example for “si” spelling. | Added “ session ” to demonstrate the “si” spelling. | REV 06/2021 |
| | Rule 17: “neighbor” and “weigh” were misplaced as exceptions to the rule. | Changed color of “neighbor” and “weigh” to brown and grouped with other words that demonstrate the rule. | REV 06/2021 |
| | Rule 21: “fishes” is an obscure plural form. | Changed “fishes” to “ wishes ” to match the curriculum. | REV 06/2021 |