

Expression of Interest – Gallery

New Zealand Glassworks (NZG), is the national centre for community glass located in Whanganui. The new facility offers studio hire to established glass artists, as well as the broader community for workshops. Additionally, it has a gallery showcasing leading glass artists from throughout New Zealand, making it a major attraction for local visitors and tourists alike. New Zealand Glassworks is cementing and building on Whanganui's existing reputation as a city for glass art excellence.

Expressions of interest can be submitted to New Zealand Glassworks (NZG) at any time.

The selection of works deemed suitable for New Zealand Glassworks (NZG) is based on the following criteria:

- New Zealand Glassworks (NZG) is focused to exhibit, sell, promote and create new opportunities for New Zealand's leading and emerging glass artists.
- New Zealand Glassworks (NZG) is committed to showing original, high quality products that demonstrate skill in design, form, function and production.
- Work will be considered based on sales potential and the consistency and availability of supply.
- Work will be considered based on its potential to fit within the current mix of stock, with regard to creating diversity within the product mix on display.
- New Zealand Glassworks (NZG) reserves the right to negotiate with individual suppliers.
- Work will be displayed subject to space considerations and size limitations.
- All work supplied must be the guaranteed original work of the maker.
- All work is preferably made in New Zealand.
- All consigned works to NZG will be subject to a signed consignment contract between both parties.
