

2009 Gibbston Tasting notes

Winemaker Grant Taylor describes this 2009 as “quintessential Gibbston” and possibly his best Pinot Noir to date.

Highly perfumed with layers of aromatics, sweet earth, and dried herb spiciness, hints of floral violet and red fruits.

Concentrated with long silky texture and flavours wrapped around a bright acid core balanced by very fine, ripe tannins. Consistency through palate, length and perfect balance define this wine.
