You don't have to have a discerning palate to know that edible gifts are truly the best kind. Here, 10 tasty, Colorado-made picks for the food-lover on your list.

A Pancake Mix With a Seasonal Twist

Snowy holiday mornings just wouldn't be the same without a stack of fluffy, hot-off-the-griddle pancakes. With Birch Benders' all-natural, Colorado-made pancake mixes, cooking breakfast is a snap (the mixes only require water). Better yet, the festive flavors are perfect for ringing in the season. We love the not-too-sweet Pumpkin Spice, Sweet Potato, and Gingerbread Spice varieties, all of which are available through the end of December.
