scents, with rose playing the heart note, which takes me back to the beautiful gardens of the English countryside where I grew up. When it comes to fashion, Paige has been my go-to denim for years, so I couldn't be happier to be the face of the brand. Isabel Marant always does a cool skirt and the best blazers too. The dresses from Chloé's Spring 2015 collection are to die for! So are the jumpsuits from Balmain, like this red one, which I happily modeled for the house's spring collection. Regarding jewelry, anything from Anita Ko is sure to put a smile on my face. I own a pair of her panther studs, which I never take off. I also love Jacquie Aiche. The best watch I have is my rose-gold Patek Philippe Calatrava men's watch, which my man (Jason Statham) gave me for my 24th birthday a few years ago. I love that it's slightly masculine and oversized. Oliver Peoples does the ultimate sunnies. Since I live in L.A., they are an everyday staple. I always have a few pairs with me in my handbag. Thankfully they can also hide a multitude of sins, like jet lag and early-morning call times! I've stayed in a few of the Aman resorts when I travel. They're all set in the most stunning locations. The food, rooms, treatments, and service do not disappoint. I know I can never go wrong booking some downtime at an Aman resort. ■

I'm always intrigued by and attracted to new twists on classic themes. This season, it's about an effortless fringed tote or a hands-free bucket bag paired with a sleek sandal or equally wearable stacked heel—all in my favorite color, black. Then, add a courageous piece of jewelry like this between-the-finger ring or ear-contouring cuff for a touch of daring.

38 DELICATE EAR CUFFS EVERY MINIMALIST WILL LOVE

No crazy spikes or studs in sight.

By Sarah Lindig Jul 24, 2016

Ear cuffs have all but replaced traditional earrings these days—and for good reason. Ear cuffs are cool. Whether it’s a cartilage hoop or a sleek climber, there’s something undeniably edgy and unique about the look. That said, not all of us are so eager to abandon our dainty everyday studs for some giant, studded, spiked thing taking over our ear. For the minimalists among us, sleeker, simpler, daintier styles are a more inviting option. Here, we’ve rounded up the...
