Harbinger

Tasting Notes

Medium-bodied blend with intense notes of blueberry jam, eucalyptus, and spices.

Winemaker Notes

Harbinger has been a long tradition on our portfolio and for good reason! With this newest bottling, we see one of our new favorites, Maréchal Foch, take the stage. Rich and round, Foch shines with blackberry and blueberry compote notes while adding a eucalyptus note that nods back to its French heritage. Aged for 11 months in French and American oak, this wine shines with round and grippy tannins, a refreshing acidity, and tons of complexity to keep you reaching for another glass. Enjoy alongside beef stew, spinach and artichoke dip or sausage and fennel.
