Chain of Ponds Morning Star Pinot Noir 2020

Chain of Ponds Wines is a boutique winery established in 1985 in the Adelaide Hills Wine Region. It has earned its status as a 5 star winery in James Halliday's Australian Wine Companion 2017.

Tasting Notes

Medium garnet in appearance. Campari, cranberry, red cherry and five spice aromas. Palate shows layers of red cherry, cranberry and blood plum, attractive kitchen spice elements, supple yet savoury tannin crunch and plenty of charry oak in support.

Ulithorne Nova Duo 2019

Ulithorne commenced producing small quantities of red wines from selected parcels of grapes from its estate vineyard in McLaren Vale, planted in 1950 by Bob Whiting. Since its beginnings, Ulithorne has become an iconic South Australian brand, having expanded its presence within the market. These high-quality and in-demand wines are crafted to always consider the fruit first – ensuring that the final wine celebrates all that is unique in the flavours and structure of the fruit taste, as it ripens in the vineyard. True wine lovers will always seek out premium wine that reflects the singularity of its source. This is the philosophy that drives Ulithorne Wines.

Tasting Notes

Lifted aromas of raspberry and cherry. Fresh juicy palate with cherries, red fruits and spices. Medium bodied with fine, savoury tannins.

Luberri Rioja Biga 2018

We're taking you to Luberri winery to meet Florentino Martínez Monje, a family man, and who has Tempranillo and the Terroir of Alvesa running in his veins. These wines that straddle the past and future of winemaking in Rioja. Luberri is run by whose philosophy is to make wines that are above all honest and true to the terroir and tradition of the Rioja region, and the modern energy of his winemaking.

Tasting Notes

Biga is a cherry-coloured wine of medium intensity, a modern Crianza, with the predominance of fruit to which noble wood contributes shades of complexity. Delicate aromas: fresh and clean fruit, with tones of leather, spices and fine wood. In the mouth it is light, pleasant, emphasising a hint of freshness.

Kangarilla Road Zinfandel 2019

Sourced from our Estate vineyard in the heart of McLaren Flat. It is located in the northern part of the foothills and ripens later than many of the other sub-regions resulting in an abundance of soft-velvety tannins. Fermented in traditional oak vats, the wine will soak on grape skins to help build structure and mid-palate. After ferment, the wine was stored in one-year old French oak hogshead barrels for 18 months.

Tasting Notes

Lovely aromas of blackcurrants, stewed rhubarb, hibiscus tea and wild brambles all entwined with exotic eastern spices. There are also pleasing glimpses of sweet dried raisins and some delicate violet notes.
