Chaffey Bros Tripelpunkt Riesling 2019

Brothers-in-law Daniel Chaffey Hartwig and Theo Engela are the latest generation of the Chaffey family to ply their vinous trade in Australia. Their hand-made, minimal intervention wines come from small parcels of low yielding vineyards spread throughout the Barossa and Eden Valleys. Drawing on true old vines and complex soils they see themselves as part parfumer - discovering delicate aromatics; part historian - preserving the purity of pristine fruit and part mad scientist - reveling in the art of small batch blending.

Tasting Notes

Pale yellow colour, with a lifted fragrance of fresh flowers and whispers of citrus blossoms. The wine is just off-dry, the sweetness helping make it more approachable at this tender age. It's very young and bright, will live long and reward cellaring, and it is delicious now. The balance is superb.

Region Eden Valley, SA

Cellar Up to 2026

Alcohol 12.0%

Food Match Chipotle Chicken
Quesadillas

Peter Lehmann Cellar Archives Barossa Semillon 2013

The 2013 vintage was our earliest and one of the driest for many years. The weather remained warm to hot throughout but without any extended heat waves. Barossa Semillon, often the first white grapes to be picked on the Valley floor, were harvested at the beginning of February in order to retain freshness and acidity. The fruit was picked early and fermented cold in stainless steel tanks to retain fruit delicacy. Following a two week fermentation period, the wine was clarified and bottled before being cellared at the Peter Lehmann winery.

Tasting Notes

The nose exhibits a hint of development with toast and brioche notes. The palate has both the typical zesty, citrus flavours of a young Semillon and the beeswax, honey complexities of it's age.

Region Barossa Valley, SA

Cellar Up to 2030

Alcohol 10.3%

Cave d'Aze Bourgogne Chardonnay 2019

Located in the heart of Maconnais vineyard, the cellar of Azé, founded in 1927, follows the authentic Burgundy tradition. Winemaker Denis Charlot aims for the perfect balance between modernity and traditional winemaking practices in a cellar that dates back over 90 years. Gaston Roupnel, brilliant historian and a bright spirit of Burgundy, would say about these wines that they "allow the wine-loving world to drink the health of France!"

Tasting Notes

White Burgundy with a real sense of identity - this Chardonnay has it made. Subtle mealy oak, integrated oak and a clever balance of acidity and fruit. It all adds up to a Chardonnay that trades in the minerality of Burgundy, but with a modern sensibility.

Region Burgundy, France

Cellar Up to 2026

Alcohol 13.5%

Food Match Herb Crusted
Pork Loin with Grilled Asparagus

Terre a Terre Down to Earth Sauvignon Blanc 2019

This is a smart, complex, all-Australian Sauvignon Blanc that we can all appreciate. The 2019 Terre a Terre Down to Earth Sauvignon Blanc comes with a hefty endorsement too, weighing in with 96pts from James Halliday and a coveted listing on Halliday's Top 100 Wines for 2020.

Tasting Notes

A textural wine, with ripe stone fruit characters and good length. It will benefit from bottle aging, gaining some complexity with age.

Terraced Hills Chardonnay 2019

Torzi Matthews is a food and winemaking partnership between Domenic Torzi and Tracy Matthews which began in 1996 when they stumbled across a small, frost-pocketed hollow in the beautiful Mt McKenzie, Eden Valley and fell in love with the area for its remoteness and its diverse thin soils. Domenic and Tracey run the winery with one guiding principal: that their land produce low yields of fruit which in turn translate into flavoursome European style wines – the style of wines needed to match their Mediterranean heritage and food.

Tasting Notes

Aromatic stone fruits, pineapple and white blossom flowers, supported by subtle underlying tannin from the French oak. Fine creamy texture with fresh cut pineapple, and white peach with excellent roundness from extended lees contact while finishing with a savoury palate of deliciousness.

Lake Road Chardonnay 2021

Lake Road Wines began as a partnership in the early 70's with the plan of investing in premium vineyards supplying the pioneering wine companies such as Penfolds, Corbans, Giesens and Villa Maria. As a family business, quality was always valued over quantity and through careful viticulture the vines produced many gold medals, cementing a reputation for premium wines. In the mid 2000's after more than 30 years of viticulture, winemaking was begun with the first wines under the Lake Road label released in 2008 and exported from New Zealand to Australia. The Lake Road mission is to create contemporary wines with an uncompromising view to quality, presented at price points that represent terrific value across the range. They achieve this whilst still maintaining a minimal environmental impact.
