Terre a Terre Down to Earth Sauvignon Blanc 2022

Xavier and Lucy Bizot founded Terre a Terre in 2008, crafting classic Australian wines from their close-planted Crayères Vineyard in Wratttonbully. Originally from Champagne, Xavier studied viticulture and winemaking at Adelaide University. After the vineyard was first planted in 2004, he introduced what he had learned to try and produce the best fruit from this unique vineyard site. Cabernet Sauvignon Shiraz is the signature red blend of Australia, and Terre à Terre have been crafting a very classic rendition of this iconic wine style.

Tasting Notes

Strong, well defined. Great fruit integration on the palate. Stone fruit, wet stone, touch of passionfruit, gooseberry. Great length. Very pleasant.

Region Wratttonbully, SA

Cellar Up to 2027

Alcohol 13.5%

Food Match Calamari & Chips

Code ITM277211

$35.00
per bottle

Eden Hall "Reserve" Riesling 2021

Compared to the Barossa floor, vineyard plantings were relatively sparse in the Eden Valley, scattered strategically amongst the rugged rocky outcrops and ancient majestic red gums. Eden Valley was already well recognised as a premium producer of Riesling, maintaining a healthy rivalry with the Clare Valley as the two most eminent Riesling producing regions in Australia. However, the Eden Valley was also developing a reputation that is now well established for cool climate reds displaying finesse, elegance, and understated power. None of this was lost on David and Mardi Hall who could see that the Eden Valley high country offered the ideal environment to grow premium fruit and make wine in order to realise their dream. They were therefore very privileged to purchase the Avon Brae property in the Eden Valley in 1996, along with its historic homestead.

Tasting Notes

Pale straw with a floral nose dominated by jasmine and frangipani. Lemon from start to finish on the palate. An austere, classical Eden Valley Riesling.

Region Eden Valley, SA

Cellar Up to 2032

Alcohol 11.2%

Food Match Freshly Shucked Oysters

Code ITM278039

$35.00

Fowles Small Batch Reserve Chardonnay 2021

Fowles Wine is a 100% family owned and operated winery located in the ancient granite landscape of the high altitude Strathbogie Ranges wine region in Victoria. Led by Matt Fowles, Fowles Wine crafts some of Australia's finest cool climate wines, winning many prestigious awards, including being a 5-star winery by James Halliday.

As a family of farmers, for generations they have been connected to the land; committed to ethical practices and simple approaches. Their approach to winemaking is fundamentally about capturing the essence of the Strathbogie Ranges. The special combination of climate, soil and topography is what gives their wines their structural core.

Tasting Notes

Aromas of orange and fragrant lemon, followed by apple, peach, hints of oak and dried coconut. The palate is silky and medium weight with a medley of stone fruit and citrus, and a hint of almond and lemon grass on the finish.

Region Strathbogie Ranges, VIC

Cellar Up to 2031

Alcohol 12.7%

Food Match Whiting Fillets w/ Potatoes & Garlic Butter

Jim Brand Yates Chardonnay 2021

Jim Brand was the born into the 3rd Generation of an Australian winemaking legacy, with his family name synonymous with the world renowned Coonawarra region. His life was dedicated to producing iconic wines from his family's famous Coonawarra vineyards with a passion and sincerity which is evident in every glass. His passion spoke much louder than his words, his influence felt long since his time passed.

Tasting Notes

Creamy nose with abundant stone fruit, which continues on the complex, smooth and rounded palate. Strong peach and nectarine characters, creamy cashew nuts and balancing acidity. Long, fine finish with lingering fruit flavours.

Region Coonawarra, SA

Cellar Up to 2028

Alcohol 13.0%

Food Match Poached Salmon w/ Roasted Vegetables.

Code ITM267474

McWilliams 842 Chardonnay 2016

McWilliams have been the doyens of the Australian wine industry longer than anyone can remember. Their history now spans over six generations since venturing into wine in 1877. Today, they are one of the largest family owned wine businesses in the country. As well as having McWilliam's Mount Pleasant in the Hunter Valley, they also have the large Hanwood winery in the Riverina region of New South Wales that has existed since 1916. It is here wine ranges like Hanwood and Lillydale Estate are produced.

Recently, McWilliams ventured into the Margaret River after purchasing the Evans and Tate and Catching Thieves brands. Chief Winemaker Corey Ryan and Senior Winemaker Russell Cody dabble in regions around the country such as Coonawarra, Hilltops, Yarra Valley, Tumbarumba and Eden Valley. They produce quality wines ranging from reliable and affordable through to upmarket single vineyard. They also have some fun with fortifieds just to keep things interesting.

Tasting Notes

Aromas of apple, pear combined with fleshy stone fruits of peach and nectarine, along with classic mineral wet stone and flint, all backed up by spicy cedar oak nuances complemented with nutty almond and marzipan.

Region New South Wales

Cellar Up to 2026

Alcohol 13.5%

Food Match Chicken, Cranberry & Camembert pie

Code ITM258432

Hungerford Hill Tumbarumba Pinot Gris 2021

Hungerford Hill take great pride in their long-standing reputation for producing distinguished wines and providing unforgettable experiences. Guided by Bryan Currie, their highly accomplished and award-winning winemaker, the Hungerford team consistently produces wines of character and interest that focus on the Hunter Valley and NSW's cool-climate regions including Hilltops and Tumbarumba. The history of Hungerford is long and complex, but its most recent chapter began in December 2016 when Sam Arnaout purchased the winery. He had visions of a Hungerford Hill with a greater focus on Hunter Valley wines, so he also acquired the renowned Sweetwater and Dalwood vineyards. With an award-winning cellar door, restaurant and range of wines, Hungerford Hill is now in the enviable position of being able to offer an all-encompassing wine and food experience worthy of its name.

Tasting Notes

Musk and ripe pear, honeydew melon and nectarine aromas which complement a detailed and textured palate of pear skin with a touch of pepper and spice on the finish.
