Peos Estate Four Kings Chardonnay 2020

Manjimup has been home to the Macedonian-born Peos family for more than 90 years. With viticulture in their historical veins, brothers Vic, John, Kon and Chris banded together in 1996 to create their dream vineyard as a legacy to their late father, Jim Peos, and late grandfather, P.Y. Peos.

A passionate farmer, P.Y. began cultivating grapes and producing wine whilst living in Macedonia almost a century ago. He passed this love of wine down to his son, Jim, who continued to farm grapes and make wine in Macedonia until he joined P.Y. and the rest of his family in Australia in 1951.

Upon first arriving in Australia the Peos family settled in Manjimup, attracted by its rich soils and ideal crop-growing weather. Their undying devotion to living off the land has seen them farm everything from dairy cattle and beef to mixed horticulture, potatoes, cauliflowers and beans.

The establishment of Peos Estate winery by the third generation Peos brothers has turned the family dynasty full-circle back to where it belongs, growing grapes and producing wine to remember.

Tasting Notes

Crisp, vibrant wine. Lovely fruit, pear and spice linger across the textured palate. Wonderful balance and length.

Tasting Notes

Woodvale Watervale Riesling 2015

The brand new wine label for Clare Valley's Inaugural Winemaker of the Year, Kevin Mitchell and wife Kathleen Bourne, Woodvale Vintners, bursts onto the scene with a five-star rating in its first Halliday Wine Companion Review securing a spot in the Top Ten New Wineries of the 2018 edition. Woodvale Vintners produces outstanding small batch wines that the Clare Valley does so well, riesling, shiraz, cabernet sauvignon, mataro, semillon, pinot gris and of course, grenache.

Tasting Notes

Five years resting in the cellar have reshaped this wine into a more toasty and honeyed style, still classically Watervale Riesling, yet now possessing new complex and textural qualities that have opened up whole new food pairing possibilities.
