Fontanafredda Barbera Organic Piemonte Barbera DOC 2018

This comes to us from Fontanafredda, whose history is somewhat...romantic. In 1858 the King of Italy, Vittorio Emanuele II, purchased the estate and began planting vineyards for the woman he loved, Rosa Vercellana. 160-odd years later and then are unsurprisingly one of the big players in the region with 120 hectares of organic farmed fruit.

Tasting Notes

Sweet, soft tannins come together in a closely woven texture that merges with the fruit, while a crisp freshness provides a long, tasty finish. This wine is at its best for 3-4 years following the harvest.

Peos Estate Four Kings Cabernet Sauvignon 2018

Manjimup has been home to the Macedonian-born Peos family for more than 90 years. With viticulture in their historical veins, brothers Vic, John, Kon and Chris banded together in 1996 to create their dream vineyard as a legacy to their late father, Jim Peos, and late grandfather, P.Y. Peos.

Upon first arriving in Australia the Peos family settled in Manjimup, attracted by its rich soils and ideal crop-growing weather. Their undying devotion to living off the land has seen them farm everything from dairy cattle and beef to mixed horticulture, potatoes, cauliflowers and beans.

A passionate farmer, P.Y. began cultivating grapes and producing wine whilst living in Macedonia almost a century ago. He passed this love of wine down to his son, Jim, who continued to farm grapes and make wine in Macedonia until he joined P.Y. and the rest of his family in Australia in 1951.

The establishment of Peos Estate winery by the third generation Peos brothers has turned the family dynasty full-circle back to where it belongs, growing grapes and producing wine to remember.

Tasting Notes

Medium bodied with a generous mouth-feel, well balanced acidity and fine dusty tannins. Flavours of cigar, black forest, eggnog and vanilla.
