Laurent Perrachon Moulin à Vent «Terre Roses» 2021

The emblematic and historic family estate of Laurent Perrachon is one of the leading luminaries driving the renaissance of the region and have been courted by some of the world's leading wine importers and wholesalers, particularly in the US and Europe. Using classic, goblet-trained, old-vine material from some of the leading climates, Perrachon make dynamic, organic, terroir-driven wines that seem to have more in common with the great estates of Burgundy, than they do with Beaujolais itself. They are intensely cerebral wines that will have you coming back for more.

Tasting Notes

It is a well built wine which has a dark ruby rim. The bouquet is dominated by iris, wilted rose, spices and ripe fruit aromas. Moulin à Vent is a wine to age, classified as the 'Lord of the Beaujolais' wines.

Heirloom Vineyards Velvet Fog Pinot Noir 2021

Heirloom Vineyards was conceived in vintage 2000, when a young winemaking student caught the eye of a wine judge. A love story ensued inspired by two vows: To preserve the best of tradition, the old world of wine and our unique old vineyards and to champion the best clones of each variety planted in the most appropriate sites embracing the principals of organic and biodynamic farming. Seven long vintages of trial and error passed before Heirloom Vineyards could make a wine that was fine enough to pass on to future generations. This is that wine.

Tasting Notes

Fresh and lively Pinot aromas combine with restrained French oak. Notes of black fruits and berries with a powerful, linear acidity that balances the fruit exceptionally. Tannins dry out the finish yet generosity lingers.

Tasting Notes

Dandelion Vineyards Twilight of the Adelaide Hills Chardonnay 2021

Dandelion Vineyards defies normal description, it is perhaps Australia's most quixotic fusion of vineyard and vigneron. Every wine is sourced from a single site and every bottle signs off with - ""Wish you were here...""

Founder, owner, winemaker - Elena Brooks - is a polymath and perfectionist on a lifelong vinous treasure hunt, following the inspiration of the Dandelion flower's wishing clock.

Tasting Notes

Aromas of green apple, stone fruit, lychee and subdued oak. The palate is dry and soft with good grip and texture, yet also some steeliness and minerality. Notes of tropical fruits, guava, and a strong, crisp acid backbone.

Peter Lehmann Cellar Archives Barossa Semillon 2013

In 1979 Peter Lehmann parted ways with Saltram to start Masterson Wines, the company which has since evolved into Peter Lehmann Wines, in a move solely designed to help the growers he had built relationships with over the years. Peter took the surplus grapes and doing business on a handshake sold wine on a "pay now and we'll deliver in two years" arrangement called 'The Futures'. This raised enough money to buy the growers' fruit and process it into what became the first ever vintage of Peter Lehmann wine in 1980. Today the team at Peter Lehmann have a collective winemaking mentality defined by former chief winemaker and mentor, Andrew Wigan. Over the years there has been a natural evolution within the team but the approach has remained the same; consistency and a continuous strive for perfection.

Tasting Notes

The nose exhibits a hint of development with toast and brioche notes. The palate has both the typical zesty, citrus flavours of a young Semillon and the beeswax, honey complexities of it's age.
