Yelland & Papps Barossa Vin de Soif GMC 2017

Yelland & Papps is a 1st generation husband and wife team starting in 2005 in the iconic Barossa Valley, using a minimal intervention approach to create elegant, structured fruit forward wines to enjoy in a social aspect or can cellar gracefully for many years to come. In the winery there a focus on using a lot of whole bunch fermentation, no filtration, larger format oak and putting 100% whole bunches in puncheons and letting them sit for up to a year in some cases. All wines are wild fermented, unfinned, vegan friendly and unfiltered with only a couple whites being filtered.

Tasting Notes

Think pure, plump and juicy plum and berry fruits, a touch of sour cherry bite, plenty of spicy nuance, a waft of gingerbread and frangipani and a whole lot of effortless, slurpy drinkability.

Rochford Cru de la Cote Pinot Noir 2021

This Yarra Valley property was purchased by Helmut Konecsny in 2002; he had already established a reputation for Pinot Noir and Chardonnay from the family-owned Romsey Park vineyard in the Macedon Ranges (sold in 2010). Since '10, Helmut has focused on his Yarra Valley winery and vineyards. In addition to the cellar door, the property has two restaurants, a retail shop, and an expansive natural amphitheatre and observation tower - a showpiece in the region. Rochford wines is considered a showpiece for the Yarra Valley. This is due in part to its exceptional cellar door and restaurant set up, but also, and perhaps more significantly, because it's wine's set the standard for quality Pinot Noir and Chardonnay from the cool climate region.

Tasting Notes

Aromas of spicy plum and cherry fruit characters combine with charcuterie, earth and rhubarb. The palate is lively and fresh with plenty of pinot charm. Forest berries and cherries finish with amaro spice.

Dopff & Irion Riesling Cuvée René Dopff 2019

Dopff & Irion was created in 1945, so just after the Second World War, by the merger of two wine families: the Dopff family and the Irion family. René Dopff was the son of Jean Gustave Dopff, winemaker in Riquewihr and whose family produces wines since the 16th century. He took care of the management and administration and his brother Julien worked mainly in the vineyards. Following a dispute between the two brothers, René left the winery and joined the Resistance. On his return to Riquewihr in March 45, René goes into partnership with Jeanne Irion, a major family name in the Alsatian vineyard, to create the company Dopff & Irion.

Tasting Notes

Fresh green and red apple notes on both the nose and palate are followed by a dry and fresh finish.

Tascante Buonora Etna Bianco 2020

Nerello Mascalese is the hero in this part of the world, a dark skinned grape that produces taut and mineral wines with a herbal edge that have an aromatic profile that has been likened to a mixture of Burgundy and Barolo. Nerello Cappuccino, another endemic variety, is often added to the classic Etna blend (Etna Rosso) to lift the perfume. In the white camp the key variety here is Carricante, known for it's high acidity, broad spectrum of citrus flavours (think lemon to grapefruit to tangerine and back again) and ageability, but Chardonnay is also produced.

Tasting Notes

A bright, pretty white with crushed lemon-rind, green-apple, almond and lemon aromas and flavors. It's medium-bodied with attractive fruit and a long, lively finish. Drink now.
