Peter Lehmann Cellar Archive Barossa Semillon 2015

In 1979 Peter Lehmann parted ways with Saltram to start Masterson Wines, the company which has since evolved into Peter Lehmann Wines, in a move solely designed to help the growers he had built relationships with over the years. Peter took the surplus grapes and doing business on a handshake sold wine on a "pay now and we'll deliver in two years" arrangement called 'The Futures'. This raised enough money to buy the growers' fruit and process it into what became the first ever vintage of Peter Lehmann wine in 1980. Today the winemaking team at Peter Lehmann have a collective winemaking mentality defined by former chief winemaker and mentor, Andrew Wigan. Over the years there has been a natural evolution within the team but the approach has remained the same; consistency and a continuous strive for perfection.

Tasting Notes

Strong notes of gorgonzola on the nose. Really interesting and complex. Palate is rich, intense, impeccably structured. Length just keeps charging.

Chateau Thieuley Bordeaux Blanc 2021

A 100% family-owned vineyard, the « Vignobles Courselle » started in 1950, when André Courselle bought Château Thieuley located in the famous France Bordeaux Region and lay the foundation of a great vineyard. In 1972, his son Francis Courselle, a young engineer and oenology professor, took over the management of Thieuley vineyards. In 30 years, the acreage increased from 4 to 80 hectares spread over three properties : Château Thieuley, Clos Sainte Anne and Château Saint Genes. Marie and Sylvie Courselle, Francis Courselle's two daughters, inherited from the family passion. Today, they took over the business and the destiny of Thieuley.

The Little Wine Co Pecorino 2022

Ian and Suzanne Little present a terrific range of wines encompassing both traditional and emerging varieties. After many years making the benchmark varieties of the Hunter Valley, Shiraz, Semillon and Chardonnay, they were both very interested to experiment with new varieties from the Hunter Valley and further a field, and were some of the first in Australia to plant Pecorino. They learnt by trial and error how to manage some of the vagaries of these new varieties and made some big discoveries along the way and no doubt there will be many more. They make wines that they like to drink and make wines to be enjoyed as much as the Littles enjoyed making them.

Tasting Notes

Aromas of pecorino cheese (no really), capers, quince. Palate is very pleasantly textured, steely, firm acid, boldness around the edges. Crowd-pleaser.

Coldstream Guard by Levantine Hill Chardonnay 2021

Every member of the Levantine Hill team is committed to pursuing perfection, believing that perfection has no end point. Whether they're part of the winemaking team, the restaurant and events team, or the management and sales team, it is that relentless pursuit and desire to never compromise on quality that has drawn them to join the Levantine Hill vision. Levantine Hill is the perfect merger of two vineyards right in the heart of the Yarra Valley. On the one side, a vineyard producing superior grapes since the 1990s. On the other, lovingly planted family blocks right alongside a Truffière surrounding the homestead. Together, this combined estate is pure testament to the passion and toil of dedicated human hands and man's tenuous relationship with the nurturing love of Mother Nature. Levantine Hill is a story of what becomes possible when you have a dream of building a lasting family legacy.

Tasting Notes

Aromas of custard apple with floral and citrus notes, a subtle savoury undercurrent and some flinty complexity. The palate is deep, long and flavourful with lemon posset and petrichor undertones washing over refreshing acidity.
