Watkins Sibling Series Langhorne Creek Grenache 2022

The Watkins family entered the wine industry in 1997 when David and Ros Watkins planted their first vineyard in South Australia. In 2019, David and Ros brought their children into the fold: Sam Watkins as Winemaking Director, Ben Watkins at Commercial Director and Jo Watkins as Export, Sales and Marketing Director. Together the Watkins family own and operate a winery and vineyard (8ha) in Clarendon, Adelaide Hills and a vineyard in Langhorne Creek (141ha). There was an opportunity to start selling their premium wine from these vineyards directly to consumers, which saw the start of the Watkins label. Sam Watkins, as the winemaker, has spent over 15 years training and refining his palate. Sam has undertaken vintages in well-known wine regions across the world including the Napa Valley in the USA and the Duoro Valley in Portugal.

Idle Hill Shiraz 2021

One of the largest landholders in the Barossa, Grant Burge wines is a bastion of well made, value for money wines. Drawing on their depth of experience in the region, Grant Burge and his wife Helen established the brand in 1988 and have developed a formidable range of wines across a broad spectrum of price points. The history of the Burge family and their long association with winemaking in the region can be traced back to March 1855, when noted tailor John Burge immigrated to the Barossa from Hillcot, near Pewsey in Wiltshire, England with his wife Eliza and their two sons.

Grandeur Wellington Artisan McLaren Vale Shiraz 2015

In the early 1800s, Napoleon’s France seemed poised to rule the world. However, in 1815 history turned. Combined armies lead by the cool head and superior tactics of Arthur Wellesley, 1st Duke of Wellington, defeated Napoleon’s forces at the famed Battle of Waterloo. Wellington’s victory helped usher in a new era of peace, prosperity and progress across Europe. As the years progressed, Wellington’s considerable influence as a statesman helped the South Australian Colonisation Bill through the British Parliament – ultimately leading to the first vines being planted in the fledgling colony of South Australia at McLaren Vale in 1838.
