Long Gully Shiraz 2020

In 1972 Reiner Klapp, founder of Klapp Electronics, and his wife Irma purchased their 40-hectare weekend retreat in the picturesque foothills of the Great Dividing Range on Long Gully Road just west of Healesville. Little did they know then that this decision would become the beginning of a whole new life for them and they certainly had no idea that they would go on to become major contributors to the rebirth of the wine industry in the Yarra Valley. Long Gully Estate has grown to become one of the larger ‘boutique vineyards’ in the Yarra Valley, building their own on-site winemaking facility and crushing around 100 tons of grapes every vintage. The winery has received numerous awards and accolades for their exceptional wines, winning nine prestigious trophies and a tally of gold, silver and bronze medals numbering in the hundreds.

Tasting Notes

Deep vibrant purple. Luscious bouquet full of boysenberry, black pepper & liquorice. The wine is medium bodied with a palate showing ripe black, plum fruits tamed by black pepper spices balanced on a long, rich and complex palate.

Region	Canberra, ACT
Cellar	Up to 2028

Busselton Boys Cabernet Merlot 2019

In 1830 three brothers - Alfie, Charlie and Jack Bussell - disembarked in the hot sun after a long and arduous sea voyage on the ‘Warrior’ at the infant Swan River Colony, Western Australia. After a few unsuccessful years attempting to earn their fortune around Augusta, this enterprising trio set off into the wilderness in search of a better place to establish a farm. They eventually found a favourable site with good soil and mild conditions, and here their farm - and the brothers - prospered. This small pioneering plot was the beginnings of what would eventually grow into the thriving Margaret River settlement of Busselton. The boys’ endearing sense of adventure lives on in Margaret River with its contemporary winemaking style. Each of The Busselton Boys wines, made by award-winning winemaker Paul Boulden, captures both the intriguing characters of their namesakes, and of the region.

Tasting Notes

Aromas of sweet spice and dark berries. Juicy plum and sweet spice with a smoky finish.

Graphite Road Cross Sections Cabernet Sauvignon 2019

Graphite Road Estate in Manjimup sources fruit from a selection of vineyards throughout the picturesque southwest corner of Western Australia. Their Cross Sections wines encompass the region’s diversity - the rolling hills and lush farmlands of the Great Southern, the endless coastline framing Margaret River and the towering Karri tree forests.

Tasting Notes

Bright ruby red in colour. Aromas of rhubarb, red berries and herbal notes. Red fruits, tobacco box with an herbal finish on the palate.

Kirrihill Adelaide Hills Chardonnay 2017

Kirrihill is a boutique winery cultivating fine wines of outstanding quality and internationally recognised distinction. Their focus is on the pursuit of growing the best quality fruit possible, whilst managing the vineyards sustainably and respecting the individual sites. The micro-climates within the three small valleys that make up the Clare Valley region provide our winemakers with a diversity of fruit to produce elegant wines, particularly aromatic Rieslings, which speak profoundly of their place.

Tasting Notes

Aroma of crisp stone fruits, nectarine and white peach along with honey dew melon and hints of citrus zest. The palate shows a clean line of nectarine and peach fruit, soft balanced acidity and a rounded textural mouthfeel. The palate finishes clean and dry.

Region	Adelaide Hills, SA
Cellar	Up to 2023

Morgan’s Reserve Pinot Gris 2022

Originally the Morgan’s label was based around a single vineyard high in the Adelaide Hills near Lenswood, but is now a regional blend, picking out the best of the Hills. Chardonnay and Sauvignon Blanc are the focus, but with the occasional spicy Shiraz for good measure.

Tasting Notes

Lifted citrus aromas and fresh nectarine greet the nose. The palate is playful and summery with a complex medley of white stone fruit, pear and lemon dancing across the palate, leaving a fresh and satisfying mouthfeel.

Norfolk Rise Sauvignon Blanc 2021

Norfolk Rise is South Australia’s best-kept secret, with the vineyard in Mount Benson only planted in 2000, and the first vintage off the estate bottled in 2002. From a most underrated region that offers a unique combination of free-draining limestone soil profiles and cool maritime breezes that produce wines of exceptional quality and complexity. If the region was perhaps less remote, you’d imagine it could be a superstar, and Norfolk Rise would be the headliner. Don’t miss the Shiraz, Pinot Grigio and Cabernet Sauvignon here.

Tasting Notes

Light, bright and super crunchy. Sugar snap peas, fresh cut grass and light hints of passionfruit and pineapple.

Region	Mount Benson, SA
Cellar	Up to 2023
Alcohol	12.5%
