Casa E di Mirafiore Barbera d'Alba Superiore DOC 2018

Founded in 1878 by Italy's Royal Family, the Mirafiore winery is the estate that gave Barolo its nickname: "The King of Wines, the Wine of Kings." It is named after Emanuele Alberto Guerrieri di Mirafiori, the son of King Vittorio Emanuele II, the first monarch to rule after Italy's unification and the first to make wine on what would become the E. Mirafiore estate. Certified organic since 2018, Mirafiore sources the fruit for its wines from estate-owned vineyards primarily in Serralunga d'Alba commune, one of the appellation's top growing zones, known for the power and longevity of the wines it produces. The estate also owns rows in two of Barolo's most famous crus, Lazzarito and Paiagallo. The winemaking style is strictly traditional. The winemaker uses submerged cap maceration to achieve the wine's classic colour and tannic structure. Extended aging in large-format Slavonian casks (Barolo's famous "botti") gives the wine the appellation's signature nuance and depth.

Tasting Notes

One of the marvels of this region is the "Terre del Barolo" winery in Castiglione Falletto, established amidst the vineyards that grow one of the world's most illustrious wines: Barolo. A family of smallholders – because that is what each of its three hundred members has remained – living, farming and nourishing the land, while adding value to their enterprise with their own culture, history and customs. Every cluster tells the story of the miracle of the seasons, of the sun and the rain, of work that encompasses thousands of nuances.

Mitchell Wines McNicol Shiraz 2009

Jane and Andrew Mitchell established the winery in 1975 on the Mitchell family property in the western hills of the Clare Valley in South Australia. An old sandstone apple store was converted to serve as a rustic cellar door. Continued growth has resulted in further development of the winery buildings and winemaking plant. Currently, some 500-700 tonnes of premium fruit is crushed and processed in a well equipped modern winery. The imposing two-storey century-old family home sits amid the vineyards, overlooking the winery.

Tasting Notes

Paterne and Baudouin continue the family business to develop the estate which is now 14 hectares: 9 hectares in AOC Petit Chablis, 4 hectares in AOC Chablis and 1 hectare in AOC Chablis 1er Cru Vaucoupin. The desire to cultivate the best vines and produce the best Chardonnay grapes in order to Over 30 years of experience working with Chardonnay and Pinot Noir have established La Crema as a winery of consistent quality. La Crema produces wines from top cool-climate appellations to include; Russian River Valley, Sonoma Coast, Monterey and most recently Willamette. the cooler morning hours. The winemaking techniques are primarily traditional with modern enhancements to ensure that the wines are true to both the variety and the terroir. Chardonnays are whole-cluster pressed and fermented and aged in French oak on the lees with bi-monthly battonage to add texture and complexity.
