Trove Estate The Laurels Cabernet Sauvignon 2019

Trove Estate is true to its name – a valuable discovery of delightful things; a true treasure trove in the premium wine sense. Their emblem is that of the acorn; the seed of the magnificent oak tree. One of the oldest sayings in the world is 'From little things, big things grow' and this is epitomised by the tiny oak acorn that grows into the splendid and usually huge mature oak tree. It is a symbol of strength and perseverance; of tenacity and endurance; of majesty and beauty.

Tasting Notes

Dark red with a crimson hue. Aromas of dark berry, savoury spice, dried herbal nuances and hints of dark chocolate. Elegant ripe berry notes, choc mint, mocha flavours, with fine yet firm tannins and a long savoury finish.

Reynella Basket Pressed Cabernet Sauvignon 2017

John Reynell laid the foundations for Château Reynella in 1838; over the next 100 years the stone buildings, winery and underground cellars, with attractive gardens, were constructed. Thomas Hardy's first job in SA was with Reynella; he noted in his diary that he would be able to better himself soon. He did just that, becoming by far the largest producer in SA by the end of the 19th century; 150 or so years after Château Reynella's foundations were laid, CWA (now Accolade Wines) completed the circle by making it its corporate headquarters, while preserving the integrity of the Reynella brand in no uncertain fashion.

Tasting Notes

Black olive and bay leaf greet you on the nose. The palate is intense and brooding, with deep flavours of succulent blackcurrant and cassis intertwined with mint and fine integrated oak. This Cabernet isn't for the faint of heart.

Bonny Doon Le Cigare Volant 2020

While Bonny Doon Vineyard began with the (in retrospect) foolish attempt to replicate Burgundy in California, Randall Grahm realized early on that he would have far more success creating more distinctive and original wines working with Rhône varieties in the Central Coast of California. The key learning here (achieved somewhat accidentally but fortuitously) was that in a warm, Mediterranean climate, it is usually blended wines that are most successful. In 1986 Bonny Doon Vineyard released the inaugural vintage (1984) of Le Cigare Volant, an homage to Châteauneuf-du-Pape, and this continues as the winery's flagship/starship brand.

Tasting Notes

Clean, juicy, spicy with excellent depth of fruit. Medium bodied, good intensity and length. A very well-balanced wine.

The Pawn Co. Pawn Star Maturana Tinta 2020

The Pawn Wine Co. began in 2002 as an experiment between friends - winemaker Tom Keelan and vigneron David Blows. The pair saw that alternative grape varieties were being used as blending tools by the bigger corporate wine companies instead of being stand alone artisanal Adelaide Hills wines of provenance. Tom and David realised the potential of these varieties to make "old world" wine styles and determined that they be allowed to shine in their own right. The first vintage of The Pawn received so many accolades, Tom set out to identify other idyllic viticultural sites and hand selected parcels of fruit within the Adelaide Hills. He now produces wines that are not only a bit unconventional, but enjoyable to drink, incredibly food friendly, and made in a style that reflects their true origins – the ultimate in hand crafted, Adelaide Hills, artisanal wine.

Tasting Notes

This wine colour is an incredible velvety magenta purple and shows lifted perfumes of red berries and pepper on the nose. The palate is savoury and textured, framed with balanced natural acidity and tannins, filled with raspberries, violets and spice.
