Domaine Les Capréoles Régnié Diaclase 2018

When Cédric Lecareux and his wife Catherine, native of Beaujolais, discovered the property, it was love at first sight. Located in Regnie-Durette, the wine estate, steeped in history for more than 250 years, charmed them with its old stones and ancient arched cellars. With an existing winery and 3.5 hectares of old Gamay vines surrounding the house, everything was there for them to combine their wine project and family life. They took the plunge and made their first vintage in 2014.

Tasting Notes

This Régnié has such imposing stature and concentration. Black-cherry, plum and dry-earth aromas are wrapped around the substantial fine tannins on the richly textural palate. The lively mineral acidity keeps this abundance on track right the way to the end of the long finish.

Coonawarra gem, waiting to be unsealed when the timing is right. Give it 10+ years or so, and you might just be there.

Tasting Notes

Powerful and vibrant blackberry and ripe mulberry, with underlying notes of savoury roasted nuts and black olive. Persistent dark fruit, fine tannins and integrated subdued barrel characters deliver an intricate wine with intensity, elegance and graceful aging potential.

Soto Manrique Las Violetas Garnacha 2018

Jesus Soto and his wife, Maria Manrique set out to create a family legacy, building on their expertise and history in the Rueda wine region. Both have worked in wine their entire lives, from growing grapes to winemaking and selling in the local markets. They dreamed of saving enough money to buy a small vineyard, just enough for them to tend themselves, and produce enough grapes to support their family.

Tasting Notes

The palate showcases juicy red tones with floral aromas and notes of red fruit. On the palate it is light, subtle and with a good integrated acidity.

Arlewood La Bratta Semillon Sauvignon Blanc 2015

In 1994 Arlewood was established by Gary Gossatti, it is now run by his two sons Jordan and Adrian. The vineyard is driven by their Italian heritage with a few of the wines giving a nod to their great grandfather, he was capo of the cooperativa winery in his home town in Valtellina, in the far north of Italy. The Estate is run with sustainability at the forefront, much of the work is done by hand, tending the vines to control vigour and crop load for grapes of intense flavour. They aim to keep use of herbicide and pesticide under control naturally, using their flock of Wiltshire sheep in the vineyard for grass and weed control and removing the natural habitat of many pests.

Tasting Notes

A dry and medium to full bodied style with well integrated acid and lemon grass, preserved lemon and grapefruit flavours. The wine is extraordinarily balanced and poised with a very long finish.

Peter Lehmann Cellar Archives Barossa Semillon 2013

The 2013 vintage was our earliest and one of the driest for many years. The weather remained warm to hot throughout but without any extended heat waves. Barossa Semillon, often the first white grapes to be picked on the Valley floor, were harvested at the beginning of February in order to retain freshness and acidity. The fruit was picked early and fermented cold in stainless steel tanks to retain fruit delicacy. Following a two week fermentation period, the wine was clarified and bottled before being cellared at the Peter Lehmann winery.

Tasting Notes

The nose exhibits a hint of development with toast and brioche notes. The palate has both the typical zesty, citrus flavours of a young Semillon and the beeswax, honey complexities of its age.

Meyer-Fonné Pinot Blanc Vieilles Vignes 2020

Félix Meyer is a rising star in Alsace and has an evident instinct for his craft. He is the third generation in his family to be making wine since his grandfather founded the domaine in the late 19th century. Since taking over in 1992, Félix has already left his own mark, modernizing equipment in the winery, developing export sales, and now expanding the family's holdings in many of Alsace's great vineyard sites, including several grand crus.

Tasting Notes

Long, saline and very dry, despite the richness of its flavour profile. Full-flavoured, with sweet and tangy stone fruit at its core. White flowers, and a wet stone minerality just add more depth to the complex palate of this wine.
