Tascante Buonora Etna Bianco 2021

Tasca d'Almerita's history in Sicily is written in the land for which they have cared for over eight generations. Since first plantings in 1830, Tasca d'Almerita have established five different estates in Sicily – Regaleali, Capofaro, Tascante, Whitaker and Sallier de La Tour – each with its own characteristics. The Tascante estate was established in 2007 with its vineyard on the highest volcano in Europe, Mount Etna. A force of nature in its primordial state. But truly knowing the character of a land, understanding its nuances, identifying its strengths and other more problematic aspects, is never easy or immediate. It takes time to really understand the details. And details make all the difference. Autochthonous varieties of Nerello Mascalese and Carricante grapes interact magically with the volcanic soils of Mt. Etna, expressing the strength of the territory in a distinctive and unmistakable way.

Tasting Notes

Notes of lemongrass, citrus, green apple skins and hints of delicate stone fruits. Distinctive flavours like celery and dried mint emerge, complementing the volcanic minerality and tangy acidity.

Artis Single Vineyard Clare Valley Riesling 2022

Artis Wines was founded by Andrew Miller in 2016, making a Clare Valley Riesling and an Adelaide Hills Shiraz. "Artis" is Latin for craft and art, which he thought to be an appropriate name as he wanted to get back to the basics and craft interesting wines that, whilst distinctly Australian, were a bit quirky and unique. The label is a collage of images representing the countries where he has worked, the snakes and ladders being a play on the various ups and downs experienced along the way.

Tasting Notes

Flinty notes coming through slightly, but the nose is quite restrained, maintaining mystery. The palate is really zinging, notes of lemongrass, a hint of ginger, flint, lime etc. A lot going on here!

Tyrrell's was established by English immigrant, Edward Tyrrell in 1858 at the foot of New South Wales' striking Brokenback Range. Tyrrell's produces a broad array of wine varieties and styles, ranging from the inexpensive to the luxurious. They have championed the Semillon variety, with their flagship, of course, being the world-renowned Vat 1. They strive to create wines of individual character, flavour and integrity. Since 1971, Tyrrell's has been awarded over 5,000 trophies and medals and in 2010 was named "Winery of the Year" in James Halliday's Australian Wine Companion. With the fifth generation, Chris, Jane and John, involved in the business, Tyrrell's will continue to remain family owned with the simple philosophy of producing high quality wine that people love to drink.
