

If you are unsure of the ring size needed, place a ring (preferably a band) flat on a circle and the pink circle should fit inside the ring. The pink circle that best fits inside the ring is the size needed and is indicated either above or below the circle. This is only an estimate.