

ADULT FANTASY CAMP INFORMATION

REGISTRATION AND PAYMENT:

How much is camp?

Registration for the 2019 USA Triathlon Foundation Fantasy Camp is $2,500.00 per participant. $1,500.00 of which is a tax-deductible donation to the USA Triathlon Foundation. This fee includes all camp activities and training including meals, lodging, excursions and ground transportation to and from the Colorado Springs Airport. This does not include airfare and any other incidentals.

How do I register for the camp?

The initial camp registration deposit is $250.00 and will secure your spot at camp. Camp registration is available online HERE. Once registered, you will receive a confirmation email. The remaining camp fees ($2,250.00) are due April 1st, 2019 and can be paid all at once or the participant may choose to fundraise to participate at camp. Payment details and/or fundraising options can be discussed at the time of registration with USA Triathlon Foundation staff.

How soon will I receive registration confirmation?

By registering online, you will receive an immediate email confirmation. Within 24 hours of your registration, you will receive a phone call from our staff to review payment/fundraising options and to discuss specific camp details.

Are refunds available?

If you need to cancel your participation at the Fantasy Camp, the following refund policy will apply:

The $250.00 initial registration fee is nonrefundable.

Upon receipt of full payment:

75% refund if cancelation is received by 12/31/18

50% refund if cancelation is received by 1/31/19

NO additional refunds after 1/31/19

For participants choosing to fundraise for their camp fees – NO refunds are available.

How much of the $2,500.00 camp fee is tax deductible?

The USA Triathlon Foundation is a Colorado registered 501 (c) (3) nonprofit organization. Federal Tax ID 46-5062719. The fair market value of camp registration will be calculated and included in your donation receipt. Any amount donated in excess of Fair Market Value is a tax-deductible donation to the Foundation. The estimated tax deduction is approximately $1,500.00.

TRAINING:

What experience level do I need to be able to participate at camp?

Fantasy Camp is open to athletes of all abilities 18 years of age and up. We do recommend that participants who attend camp are regularly training and have some basic experience in Swim, Bike and Run. When completing the registration form, we ask that you identify your ability level as (beginner, intermediate or advanced). Campers will be broken up into 3 groups based on ability and training sessions will be geared based on these ability levels.

What will the camp schedule be like?

A tentative camp itinerary can be found HERE. This schedule is subject to change but will be updated as changes are identified.

What equipment do I need to bring to camp?

You will be required to bring all related “triathlon” gear.

Swim gear - swim suit, goggles, kick board, pull bouy, and fins etc.

Bike gear – bike, helmet, sunglasses, bike shoes, cycling gear based on the weather forecast etc.

Run gear – Appropriate clothing, running shoes, gps watch etc.

DORMS:

What are the dorms like?

Camp participants will be staying at the athlete resident halls at the Olympic Training Center. Resident athletes from a variety of Olympic teams and programs are also staying in these dorms. Dorm rooms have 2 beds per room with a sink and a TV. There are common bathrooms and showers on each floor. The dorms are adequate but not luxurious.

Are the dorms secure?

Yes, the entire Olympic Training Center is gated and secure that is patrolled 24 hours a day. Access to the OTC is strictly enforced. Access to the dorms also requires a special access key. Each participant will be issued a secure key.

Do we need to bring our own linens?

No, the OTC provides linens for the beds, but we recommend that you bring 2 towels – one for the pool and one for the shower.

TRANSPORTATION:

Is airfare included in the cost of camp?

No, participants are responsible for their own airfare. We strongly encourage you to fly directly into Colorado Springs – airport code COS.

Is transportation to and from the airport included?

Yes, transportation is included for all athletes arriving into and departing from COS. Athletes flying into other airports are responsible for their own ground transportation.

What time to I need to be at camp by?

All participants must arrive at the Olympic Training Center on Thursday May 16th by 3PM. Upon arrival to the COS airport, you should plan on 1 hour for luggage and bike retrieval and transport to the OTC. Ideally, no flights should arrive any later than 1PM local time.
