

bracelets

These are great for using up scraps of wool and any spare buttons. A very quick fashion statement, and they also make excellent gifts.

MATERIALS

- Debbie Bliss Baby Cashmerino, 55% wool, 33% acrylic, 12% cashmere sportweight (lightweight DK) yarn, 1¾oz (50g) balls, approx 137yd (125m) per ball:
- 1 x ball (or scraps) each of:

BRACELET 1

- Ecru shade 101 (off white)
- Peach Melba shade 68 (peach)
- Orange shade 92 (orange)

- White shade 100 (white)

- US size 4 (3.5mm) double-pointed needles
- Yarn sewing needle
- 1 x button for each bracelet

SIZE

Approx 7in (17.5cm) circumference

GAUGE (TENSION)

Exact gauge (tension) is not essential for this project

ABBREVIATIONS

- approx approximately
- k3tog knit 3 stitches together
- rep repeat
- st(s) stitch(es)

Bracelet cord

(make 1 in each color)
Using two US size 4 (3.5mm) double-pointed needles, cast on 3 sts. *Knit to end. Do not turn. Slide sts to the other end of the needle, keeping the working yarn to the back; rep from * until work measures approx 7in (17.5cm). K3tog, and fasten off.

Finishing

Weave in ends of two of the cords. On the third cord, use the tails to join each end of all three cords together and then join these two ends together to form the bracelet. Sew a button onto the join.
