

Backstitch

Bring the needle up at A, take it back down one stitch length behind this point at B, and bring it up again at C, one stitch length in front of the point at which it first emerged. Repeat as required.