

“Give your interior a well-deserved makeover that will ensure that your living space will once again serve the purpose for which it was intended, a space to live in!”

“It is time to look ahead. The past two years have taught us that we are more flexible than we ever imagined. We have been challenged to fall back on ourselves, to merge our living and working spaces and to switch efficiently between them. And thanks to all these new insights, we can now refocus on what really makes us happy!”

2022 COLLECTION ADDITIONS

Let us help you to feel at home again in your own home. A place where you can relax and find yourself again. What do you need? Are you looking for more character or could your interior use some colour?

Meet our new Addition Collection, which is all about personality and atmosphere. A fine mix of nostalgia and innovation. With funky elements that will give your home an unique character, complemented with exciting 'space age' eye-catchers that will set the tone. They blend into any interior and play an important role in creating that piece of individuality that your interior deserves.

“Your interior design

Enjoy good conversations late into the night on the new hand-woven porch sofa. To make it warm and as comfortable as possible, we have designed a versatile addition to our cushions and soft throws. What can seal a memory is a fragrance, it can take you back to a certain moment in your life. How nice to illuminate our new fragrance ‘Retro Porch Night’ with this in mind. This will immediately give your (indoor) garden a relaxed atmosphere. A fragrance that will symbolize those soothing evenings at home.

“With the hand-woven lounge bench, you are off to a good start. With a deep and low seat and generous dimensions, this is the ideal bench for relaxed evenings on your porch and long summer days in the garden. Fill the sofa with cushions and throws or place it as a centrepiece in your greenhouse for a natural transition from indoor to outdoor.”

“In your living room,
you want ultimate comfort, we can all agree on that.”

This is where you want to unwind on a long, soft carpet in front of the TV or sink into your favourite fauteuil with a good book. The living room where you grew up will hopefully be remembered for the fine memories you made there together. With the subtle retro elements from our collection, you will find recognition and warmth, so that you can think back with pleasant feelings to the place where you really felt at home.

“We believe that a home is not complete without having a controversial piece of art on the wall.”

These hand-painted works of art not only bring your favourite colour palette to your walls, they also give a glimpse of your personal taste. Both the abstract colour fields and the lounging women create the relaxed atmosphere you are looking for in your home. Do you like a bit of spice? We have given our four new artworks a funky twist with complementing plexiglass frames, which quite literally embrace the artwork.
