DESCRIPTION

An Italian Murano and Brass Pendant from the 1970s, that showcases the finest craftsmanship and design techniques of the time. The pendant features an impeccable blend of brass and Murano glass, both cut and polished to perfection to resemble 8 sculpted glass leaves curved to form an egg shape. The Murano glass is highlighted by its textured pink flecks. The pendant is a testament to the rich cultural heritage of the Italian Murano glass-making industry and represents the artistic and design prowess of the 1970s. Overall, the Italian Murano and Brass Pendant from the 1970s by Barovier Toso is an exquisite piece of jewelry and a collector's item that showcases the best of Italian design and craftsmanship.
