1960's 3 Light Glass and Wood Pendant Attributed to Stilnovo

Specification sheet

DESCRIPTION

A beautiful 1960s Italian three-light pendant composed of long milk glass circular structures attached with black steel perforated sheets. The sophisticated structure is designed of brass, wooden panels and steel.

The warmth of wood, the sophistication of brass, and the timelessness of black contribute to a visually appealing composition. The three glass shades, arranged in a likely balanced manner, create an elegant aesthetic. The brass elements catch and reflect light, adding a subtle visual interest. Glass shades allow for a soft diffusion of light, creating a warm and inviting ambience.
