Italian 1960s Game Table

Specification sheet

DESCRIPTION

A square-shaped game table from the 1960s, made in Italy in an Art Deco style. It's extendable and can accommodate up to 4 people. The table has a criss-cross design on the bottom and curvaceous feet, showcasing excellent workmanship. It also includes two central drawers for storage.

The table has been expertly refinished and features a dark veneer with original red-painted details. The brass endings and drawer handles add a touch of sophistication to the overall design.
