A Little Privacy, Please

With breastfeeding in public making big news these days from Maggie Gyllenhaal being caught nursing by the paparazzi to moms getting thrown out of malls, it is a welcome relief for nursing mothers to have the Moboleez bonnet for breastfeeding babies. Not only will your baby stay safe from the sun this summer, your breast will also stay out of sight from those who like to make a big fuss over babies who feed naturally. The Moboleez bonnet comes in three baby-friendly colors as well as eco-fabrics. The Moboleez bonnet retails for $28.

Belly Sculpting and Spa Experience Wrapped in One

Belly Vita has created the Belly Imprint™ Spa Treatment & Sculpting Kit, a maternal luxury that is part aromatherapy spa treatment and part belly casting kit. Belly Vita wanted to make their belly casting kit a true experience for expectant moms so they included

Balancing Belly Oil -- a definite plus -- that you rub on your belly before applying any sculpting powder. The oil helps prevent stretch marks and also relaxes your mind. The whole sculpting process only takes between 30 and 50 minutes and is a fantastic way to top off a beautiful pregnancy. The Belly Imprint Spa Treatment and Sculpting Kit retails for $65.
