INSTRUCTIONS

FROM THE CREATORS OF
WHAT DO YOU
MEME?

CONTENTS:
120 Story Cards
1,200 Write-In Papers
6 Pencils

Setup

BEFORE THE GAME BEGINS, everyone will need a writing utensil and multiple slips of paper, all of which can be found in the box.

Game Play

EACH ROUND begins with a rotating judge drawing a story card and reading the first sentence aloud.

THE OTHER PLAYERS will then take a moment to write down a word or phrase that fills in the first blank.

AFTER EVERY PLAYER has submitted their word or phrase, the judge silently chooses their favorite and places it on the story card upside down. This continues for every line.

AT THE END of the story, the judge reads the completed story, revealing the winning submissions.
