Wine analysis	Alcohol	14.0%
	Total acidity	5.1 g/l
	pH	3.75
	Residual sugar	less than 0.1 g/l

Comment Ripened by Marlborough's abundant sunshine this Malbec reveals the cool climate in which it was grown - retaining a bright vibrancy and elegance. Opening with dark violet florals, Asian spice and blackberry cassis, the aromas then hint at inky savouriness and subtle oak. The palate is full with generous fruit weight, present but layered tannins and juicy acidity. There is power and depth here, without any trace of heaviness and although built to reward patience this 2015 is approachable now – especially when enjoyed alongside rich foods such as BBQ'd beef or mushroom ragoût.

Short description A dense and powerful Malbec, lifted by bright dark fruit and violet florals. Concentrated and ripe with spicy nuances and a full, structured palate. (January 2017).
