Comment	From Marlborough's iconic north-facing hillside vineyard this Pinot is both generous and attractive, whilst maintaining pin point precision. The nose opens with aromas of ripe red berries and Black Doris plums before revealing lifted notes of perfume and fresh minerals. The palate is full, showing ripe fruit, juicy acidity and a lacy texture. A generous yet graceful wine!
Short description	Pristine dark fruit aromas, dense and concentrated, well-structured, with ripe tannin support backed by ample fruit weight and balanced acidity. (December 2016)
