Comment 2008 was a challenging year for late ripening varieties due to wet weather conditions in early/mid April. Rigorous selection and elimination of any botrytis resulted in a very small crop of clean, ripe Gewürztraminer, which were the last grapes we harvested that year.

The wine exhibits rich floral flavours with a luscious, sweet and full-bodied palate and finishes with a textural lightness due to the fine low acid/low pH structure. This elegant, mouth filling Gewürztraminer is already very enjoyable now in its delightful fruit-stage before it matures into a more complex and complete style.

Short description Rich, sweet and full-bodied Gewürztraminer with fine structure to finish light and elegant. (July 2009)
