Comment Our maturing Gewurztraminer vines are tending to give us wines with more complex aroma and flavour profiles. Redundant are those primary descriptors of Turkish Delight and rose petal – instead there are nuances of lychee, star fruit, apricot kernel, chamomile and candied ginger. Underlying this is a subtle flintstone minerality that offers direction. The palate is vibrant with a kick of lush sweetness, balanced by ripe phenolics that provide structure and a wonderfully focused persistence.

Short description Late Harvest Gewürztraminer. Pure, rich and flavoursome with a long intense finish. June 2015
