Comment

Combining pure fruit expression with textural complexity this Pinot Gris is layered with a dry finish. Fermented and aged in a third 228L French barrels, a third 600L French barrels and the remaining in small horizontal stainless steel tanks. It opens with subtle honeycomb and baked pears then expands into a savouriness of toasted almonds and brioche. The palate is rich and mouth-filling with structural balance leading into a long finish bound by cleansing minerality.

Short description

An attractive and textural Pinot Gris with good palate weight, combining pear, almond and floral aromas with clean minerality. (December 2013)
