Comment Very refined and precise expression of the Clayvin Vineyard, open and approachable, showing ripe, dark berry fruit, lifted by some slightly chocolaty/ smoky wood aromas and lots of very fine fruit tannins, all within a subtle texture. Despite its youthfulness, this generously flavoured and well structured Pinot Noir already shows a seductive elegance and promises to age into an assertive finesse wine. 16 month in wood (20% new) and bottled without fining or filtration.

Short description Ripe dark berry fruit supported by some subtle wood and a fine tannin structure. Silky texture, generous and elegant. (December 2004)
